Parish Volunteers - The Liturgy Committee is compiling a comprehensive list of the various ministries and activities in the Parish that volunteers already undertake or could undertake. This is already a long list, highlighting how extensive volunteerism has been and still is in this Parish. However, post-COVID and post Fr Pat's retirement it is not always clear who is still volunteering. We don't want to overlook anyone or embarrass anyone who no longer wants to volunteer. It would help us considerably if parishioners and others who were volunteering in the past could let the Office know what their intentions are here-on-in. It would also help if potential volunteers could make themselves known to the Office so that the Liturgy Committee can talk to them about the many options available. When volunteers contribute their little bit, the Parish zings.
